

Grapevine Articles Due – August 24th

The new August Lutheran Witness is on the table if anyone is interested in reading some good articles.

The church is still looking for someone to take on the duties of Archivist. If anyone is interested please contact Dan Chaveriat.

There was a change in plans for the Elder's and Council meetings that were supposed to be held last week. They are being held this week instead.

Just wanted to thank everyone that went out of their way to help us in accomplishing this committee's first attempt at organizing the ice cream social. From the people that donated money, food and their helping hands. Thanks everyone.
